

AHCT NEWSLETTER

Dear Colleague:

As you know, the AHCT will hold a conference in El Paso this March. (Information on registration, hotel accommodations and submission of papers follows on the attached sheet). We plan to feature sessions on performance employing videotapes from our archives. In addition, tentative arrangements are being made to schedule David Pasto for a session on Thursday morning and Paul Whitworth for a session on Friday morning. We hope to establish a format that will allow for a stimulating exchange with these talented directors.

According to a recent e-mail message from Paul Roney of the Chamizal National Memorial, the following performances are currently scheduled for the 1996 theater festival:

- March 1, 2: "La dama duende" de Calderón de la Barca
Teatro Círculo, New York
- March 3: "El Romancero"
Crisol Música y Teatro
Chimayo, New Mexico
- March 4: "No hay burlas con el Amor" de Calderón de la Barca
Compañía de Manuel Canseco, Madrid
- March 5: "Auto de la Pasión" de Lucas Fernández
Tespis Compañía de Teatro, Murcia
- March 6: "The House of Trials"
Translation of "Los empeños de una casa"
de Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz
Oklahoma City University, OK
(Dr. David Pasto)
- March 7: "Las burlas de las mujeres"
de Lope, Cervantes, Sor Juana, et al.
Teatro de la Ribera, Zaragoza
- March 8: "La dama boba" de Lope de Vega

Universidad Interamericana de Puerto Rico

REMINDERS:

Student Scholarships and Grants: Once again, the AHCT will award a travel grant to a deserving student whose paper has been accepted for presentation at the conference in El Paso. Please let your deserving students know of this opportunity so that they can apply. Those interested should contact Barbara Mujica:
Dept. of Spanish, ICC405, Georgetown University, Washington, DC 20057 (mujica@guvax.acc.georgetown.edu).

Dues: PLEASE make sure to send your dues, payable to AHCT, to Anita Stoll/ 2081 Lamberton Road/ Cleveland Heights, OH / 44118. The dues structure remains the same: A) Individual Membership @ $15 annually; B) Individual Membership (Retired Members/Students) @ $10 annually; C) Patron Membership @ $25 annually with the privilege of requesting the loan of one video from our archive without charge; D) Sponsor Membership @ $50 annually with the privileges of requesting the loan of two videos from our archive without charge and the invitation to attend and participate in the annual meeting of the Board; E) Institutional Membership @ $50 annually with the privileges of D above; and F) Sustaining membership @ $500.00, payable one time only, with the privileges of requesting the loan of two videos from our archive annually without charge and the invitation to attend and participate in the annual meeting of the Board.

Videotape Library: Karl Gregg requests that members place their video orders via e-mail whenever possible since it expedites the process (KGREGG@CCIT.ARIZONA.EDU). According to a new policy, all video rentals are for a thirty day period after which an extra charge will be assessed. In response to complaints about the quality of some tapes, he has developed a form that borrowers can complete thereby alerting us to any problems.

AHCT Conference in Spain: Remember that the Association is sponsoring a symposium on Performing Golden Age drama to be held in Almagro, in conjunction with the Almagro Theater Festival, July 8-12, 1996. Your $100 registration fee will cover theater tickets and reception. Contact Dr. Barbara Mujica, Dept. of Spanish, ICC405, Georgetown University, Washington, DC 20057 (mujica@guvax.acc.georgetown.edu) for further information.

Another conference of interest: The Department of Classical and Modern Languages and Literatures of Texas Tech University will host a conference tentatively entitled "WOMEN WRITERS OF THE SPANISH GOLDEN AGE AND LATIN AMERICAN COLONIAL PERIOD" to be held on October 10-12, 1996 in Lubbock.
